1	If the one hour time frame hasn't been reached continue taking comments and questions. I realize that comments were slow to get started but once they did get rolling Julia cut off the webinar with 10 mins remaining while comments were still coming in. I was in the middle of typing a question when the webinar was cancelled. ?????	11/6/2015 9:42 AM

2	The new manual available in digital form contains a lot of good information accessible at the press of a computer key. This is a real good step forward.	11/5/2015 9:27 AM
