1	GIS related topics	4/28/2017 9:17 AM
2	I recently retired. Now what? I guess I'll have to figure that out, huh?	4/27/2017 3:10 AM
3	Perhaps we could get into more investment related topics. One thing I hoped to get from the seminar was web sites or resources so that I study issues on my own. Otherwise, this was a broad topic and the presenter focused on useful items.	4/27/2017 1:24 AM
4	no	4/26/2017 8:08 AM
5	It could be followed up with a presentation on investing at various stages of one's life as well as private and employer pension contributions.	4/26/2017 7:13 AM
6	More of the same with similar subject matter.	4/26/2017 7:05 AM
7	Something on "what's your business worth?"	4/26/2017 6:42 AM
8	Something relevant to our profession.	4/26/2017 6:35 AM
9	Natural boundaries	4/26/2017 6:22 AM
10	Another one on investing would be great. As this was very useful I felt. Something on GPS would be interesting I believe as well.	4/26/2017 6:12 AM

3	The AOLS does a terrific job of planning webinars. Thank you.	4/26/2017 10:20 AM
4	no	4/26/2017 8:08 AM
5	Julie is a very good speaker and can easily make complex things seem simple.	4/26/2017 7:50 AM
6	Excellent Webinar. Great job. Thank you!	4/26/2017 7:36 AM
7	It covered a lot of subject material in a short time and therefore was pretty basic but interesting.	4/26/2017 7:19 AM
8	Bookkeeping 101. without good record keeping, invoicing, collecting and CRA payments a business is likely to run into problems with cash flow. A business needs to turn a profit and provide security for the owner. If no profit is realized then it is a hobby with no future.	4/26/2017 7:13 AM
9	Keep up the good work.	4/26/2017 7:05 AM
10	I could not hear the presentation on my phone and had to switch over to a PC.	4/26/2017 6:35 AM
11	Interesting topic to me here on the other side of 65 but I can see where it might not have been a lot of assistance to the 'younger' crowd around 35	4/26/2017 6:22 AM
12	The video and audio quality was less than expected, perhaps due to so many viewers, but it was not as clear as what I am used to	4/26/2017 6:19 AM
13	Thank you for inviting Albertans to attend. It is very much appreciated.	4/26/2017 6:12 AM
