1	Excellent information on all fronts.	5/4/2020 2:29 PM
2	Interesting up date on how our Insurance works	4/29/2020 10:43 AM
3	As an employed surveyor the insurance part did not really apply, but still interesting to learn how it works.	4/29/2020 10:28 AM
4	Transparency is a welcomed attribute in every organization	4/28/2020 5:31 PM
5	Good update	4/28/2020 3:43 PM
6	Yes, I did not really understand how the self funding portion of our liability ins. program worked.	4/28/2020 3:12 PM
7	simply informative	4/28/2020 2:09 PM

1	An Answer to "that question" would have been welcomed. Info on any steps taken to get surveyors back and working, and the steps taken / contacts reached out to would have been good.	4/29/2020 10:28 AM
2	I was unaware of some of the insurance information	4/28/2020 9:33 PM
3	To the point and on time	4/28/2020 3:43 PM
4	While the reduction (offset) of insurance rates for the next couple of years will be nice, for me a one time lump sum refund, using the proportionate computation described by Mark, would be preferable. 2020 will be the worst year financially.	4/28/2020 3:12 PM
5	Specific examples would have been helpful	4/28/2020 2:34 PM

1	There were not many questions	4/29/2020 10:43 AM
2	Again, more info on who has been contacted to try to get us declared as an essential service would have been beneficial, along with a better determination as to what services we offer would be deemed essential was probably why 95% of the people watching were watching.	4/29/2020 10:28 AM
3	ish. not a lot of clear direction on the limitations based on Essential services	4/28/2020 2:47 PM
4	the answers was not clear Jude your self. depends with different situation. call me I will explain there was not a sold answer or at least say what is opinion of AOLS	4/28/2020 2:09 PM

1	Check office regularly to keep insurance inforce	4/28/2020 3:43 PM
2	Yes, small staff working remotely from office. Drafting set up at home. 1 person field crew. Selecting work (pending transaction or staking for house const). Files delivered and picked up to field and for drafting, with PPE, to minimize contact risks. While we currently only have about half our normal work, we are in a very fortunate position to have any at all. As such, all precautions should be exercised.	4/28/2020 3:12 PM

1	update on PSRI rate of record input	4/29/2020 9:30 AM
2	Send out the slides by email ahead of time. That would allow for the better questions to be asked and the presentation could be somewhat more specific and allow for more and better questions	4/28/2020 3:18 PM
3	in anticipation that regional group meetings will not be happening for the spring, and possibly not fall, I would suggest more "meeting" type webinars to make up some CPD time in that area. It is generally easier to come by "seminar" hours in comparison to "meeting" hours.	4/28/2020 3:12 PM

1	I think it was good to reinforce that we should be setting an example in safe business practices. While some clients may not be happy, they are not likely often happy anyway, unless you are bending over backwards for them....and providing a deal. Most regular clients will realize that we need to abide be government directives.	4/28/2020 3:12 PM
