

On the 6th of November, 1862, he married Caroline E. Foley, who predeceased him.

Two sons and three daughters survive him, as follows: Thomas F., with the C.E.F. in France; Kenneth Lumsden, practicing Land Surveyor, Vancouver; Alice, now Mrs. C. G. Barin, Vancouver, B.C.; Marion, now Mrs. J. P. Forde, Nelson, B.C.; Minnie, was Mrs. Colonel Reeves, now deceased.

JOHN O. BROWNE.

John O. Browne was born at Norwich, County of Norfolk, England, on March 25th, 1808, and died at Toronto on April 7th, 1881.

He served his time as an engineer with either Brunell or Robert Stephenson, working under both these gentlemen on railways and other engineering work. Coming to Canada in 1847, he served a year with Henry White, P.L.S., of Beaverton (died 1879), and passed his final examination for P.L.S. on November 18th, 1848, when he came to Toronto, where he remained in practice until a short time before his death. The only work for the Government done by Mr. Browne was the Township of Morrison, the most southerly township in the Muskoka District.

JOHN O. BROWNE.

He was survived by two sons: William Albert, now deceased, and Harry John, and also by a daughter, Alice, now Mrs. (Rev.) Joseph Fletcher.

Both Mr. Browne's sons practised as Ontario Land Surveyors in Toronto, and their business is now carried on by a grandson, W. H. Browne, O.L.S., son of the late William Albert Browne.

HERBERT J. BOWMAN.

By W. H. Breithaupt.

HERBERT J. BOWMAN.

Herbert Joseph Bowman, elder son of Israel D. Bowman, was born June 18th, 1865, in Berlin, Canada West, now Kitchener, Ontario, where he died June 19th, 1916. He was a direct descendant of Wendel Baumann, a native of Switzerland, who came to Pennsylvania early in the eighteenth century. Between H. J. Bowman and his ancestor, Wendel Baumann, only four progenitors intervene: Jacob, Martin, Henry B., and Israel D., in order of descent. Henry B., grandfather, was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, in 1805, and came to Canada with his mother when a young man. In company with John Hoffman, he opened the second store in the then straggling Village of Berlin in 1837.

Israel D. Bowman was appointed County Clerk, March 27th, 1861, "during the pleasure of the Council," held the office thirty-five years, until his death in 1896, and was succeeded by Herbert J., who continued for twenty years. Father and son together thus held the County Clerkship of Waterloo County for all but eight years since the beginning of this office.
