

gratulations on the successful and energetic manner in which he had discharged his duties as County Engineer and Surveyor for the unusually long period of 39 years. He died January 21st, 1883.

HENRY CRESWICKE, JR.

Henry Creswicke, Jr., son of the foregoing, passed his final examination as P.L. S. on July 8th, 1864, and practised his profession in Barrie and vicinity. He was engaged in many municipal surveys and had a large general practice, principally in the County of Simcoe. He was unmarried and lived with his sister in the family homestead, "Hillside." He was accidentally killed by a railway train when walking on the track towards Allandale, where he intended to post some letters. The accident occurred on January 22nd, 1898.

HENRY CRESWICK, JR., (Killed).

The late A. D. H. Creswicke, barrister at Barrie, was a brother of Henry Creswicke, Jr.

DAVID GIBSON.

The subject of this sketch was born on the 9th of March, 1804, in the Parish of Glamis, Forfarshire, Scotland, where his father was a farmer. He served his time with Mr. Blackadder, Glamis, as a surveyor and civil engineer. When a young man, about 22 years of age, he came to Quebec, bringing letters to Earl Dalhousie, at that time Governor, and was speedily engaged in the survey of the boundary line between Lower Canada and the United States. He remained some time in Lower Canada, then came to Upper Canada and settled in
