

ASSOCIATION OF ONTARIO LAND SURVEYORS

organizer of the St. Lawrence District Badminton Association. He also served on the executives of the Ontario and Dominion Badminton associations. Dr. Malcolm was also enthusiastic about tennis, and was for some years a member of the Kingston Tennis Club executive.

In February, 1912, he became a member of our Association and later on was a member of the Board of Examiners for several years.

His father was George Malcolm, born in Toronto, of Scottish parents, his mother, Margaret Milligan, of Newtonville, Ont. George Malcolm grew up in Collingwood and taught English and History for many years in Stratford Collegiate Institute.

Dr. Malcolm's first wife was Jessie Louisa Ellis, daughter of Dean W. S. Ellis of Queen's University and Mrs. Ellis. They had one son, Stewart, who died in childhood. Mrs. Malcolm died in 1929. In 1933 he married Margaret Murray, who survives him. She is the daughter of Scottish parents, David and Euphemia Murray of Kingston. Dr. Malcolm had one sister, Mrs. C. F. Washington of Walkerville, Ont.

The funeral services were held in Kingston, with Rev. Dr. George Brown, of Chalmers United Church, and Rev. Dr. H. A. Kent, Principal of Queen's Theological College, officiating. Burial was in Cataraqui Cemetery.

---

HERBERT JAMES McAUSLAN

Born March 24th, 1878, Died February 7th, 1948

Student, engineer, contractor, and friend of many, Herbert James McAuslan, B.A.Sc., O.L.S., D.L.S., died peacefully in his sleep after an illness lasting two years. In his passing, the Association lost one of its senior members.

He was born in the Township of Euphrasia, in the County of Grey, one of eight children, born to James and Elizabeth McAuslan. Surviving him are brothers, William of Thornbury, Robert and Thomas in Saskatchewan, and sisters, Mrs. Robert Conn in Thornbury and Mrs. E. F. Neil in Saskatchewan.

In 1911 he married Minnie Kinehan, daughter of Patrick and Annie Kinehan, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., who survives him along with their two children, James and Anna (Mrs. K. E. Kennedy of Port Credit, Ontario).

Mr. McAuslan graduated from Meaford High School in 1900, from the School of Practical Science in 1903, and post graduated in 1905 with degree of B.A.Sc. The next year he received his degrees of O.L.S. and D.L.S.

From 1905 on, his life was spent in the north country and his home town, North Bay. From 1906 to 1910 he was on the Engineering

COMMITTEE ON BIOGRAPHY

Staff of the T. & N. O. Ry. In 1911, he and the writer formed the partnership of McAuslan and Anderson, Engineers, Surveyors and Contractors. During this partnership, he acted as engineer for North Bay from 1915 to 1919.

In 1921, the partnership was merged with the partnership of Angus and Taylor, to form the construction company, Angus and Taylor Limited, which company carried on railway, highway and airport construction. He served as its President from 1928 to 1945.

He was active in Masonry, being a Past Master of Nipissing Lodge 420, G.R.C., a Past First Principal of St. John's Chapter 103, R.A.M., and a Past Preceptor of Harrington 14, Knights Templar. He was also a member of Rameses Temple and of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite.

He was an ardent churchman and, as a member of the Board of Managers, served St. Andrew's Church from 1916 to 1925, and as an elder from 1926 to 1945.

The Masonic funeral was held in St. Andrew's Church on Thursday, February 9th last and the remains taken to Thornbury for interment.

By HERBERT M. ANDERSON, O.L.S.

He also adminton and was executive. tion and years.

Scottish George story for of Dean one son, In 1933 daughter ton. Dr. , Ont.

George Principal ataraqui

rt James ep after lost one ounty of McAuslan. Thomas and Mrs.

ick and n along of Port n 1900, ated in grees of

and his ineering