1	SCG used to hold a dinner/dance with spouses every summer. My most memorable occasion was a dinner dance held at RCYC back in the early 1980's	11/16/2016 11:09 AM
2	If I go on a cruse, I can't go home whenever I like.	11/15/2016 11:58 PM
3	A day of tennis	11/15/2016 8:17 PM
4	Why can't we do both?	11/2/2016 1:14 PM
5	This is a great opportunity to renew contact with your colleagues	10/29/2016 2:58 PM
6	Keep the tradition alive!	10/26/2016 9:46 PM
7	Maybe there is enough interest to do both? I prefer the dinner as I am lousy at Golf, although I do play the game.	10/26/2016 6:22 PM
8	Every ones done the Harbour cruise before	10/26/2016 4:02 PM
9	Golf, with an educational component for some CPD hour(s) is preferred. Thanks for asking.	10/26/2016 3:25 PM
10	Golf is dying, but even better than a cruise, host an "Evening at the Races" . Go back to the Woodbine Raceway where we just held a meeting. That venue allows for food, socializing and a little fun making a few wagers. Don't drag everyone into downtown Toronto!!! Just my thoughts....	10/26/2016 2:27 PM
11	Yes much better..... my golf game sucks.	10/26/2016 2:17 PM
12	Golf is great, but alternating each year between golf and another event such as this would be more inclusive for those that don't golf.	10/26/2016 2:02 PM
13	Golfing is fun. Gets us sweating and out of the office for once.	10/26/2016 1:56 PM
14	A great time at the golf events	10/26/2016 1:53 PM
15	You need a comment as to why we should have a day of golf over a cruise?	10/26/2016 1:51 PM
16	I think the day of golf is exclusionary as most members neither golf nor are able to get away from the office for an afternoon.	10/26/2016 1:49 PM

SCRG Survey - October 2016

17	Ron is the best	10/26/2016 1:43 PM
18	Both are great ideas but it would be nice to mix it up a little.	10/26/2016 1:42 PM
19	Thanks for asking.	10/26/2016 1:42 PM
20	Because I like golf. The cruise would be more of a couples thing however I remember doing them in past and they were fun as well.	10/26/2016 1:39 PM
21	A cruise is not an option for me.	10/26/2016 1:38 PM
