

Anthony Owen Stickings, OLS# 1071
Deceased February 20, 2005

Anthony Owen Stickings passed away peacefully in his sleep at Saanich Peninsula Hospital on Sunday, February 20, 2005. Anthony is survived by his loving wife, Jean Margaret, dear father of Timothy Ewart, Catharine, Valerie, James Owen and Marlene. Anthony leaves his sister, Margaret Last and grandchildren, Jillana, James and John. Anthony lived a full and complete life as a teacher, musician, adventurer, pacifist, husband and father. He worked for the Friends Ambulance Unit in China during World War II and delivered supplies to the needy. After marrying Jean they lived in Borneo where Tony was a cartographer, and where Catharine was born. They moved to Canada in 1957 with sons, Tim and James, when he became a teacher. Jean and Tony adopted sisters, Marlene and Valerie. After retiring, Tony became a church organist and choir director.